

Winnifred Titton

on herself and her surroundings. Is very industrious. Gives a good account of herself. In good health W.H.
 A well behaved industrious woman who converses rationally and gives a good account of herself. Is in good bodily health W.H.
 The satisfactory mental condition of this patient has been maintained & she seems now quite convalescent. B.Hood W.H.
 Discharged this day

Recovered W.H.

In admission W.H.

On Discharge. maa.

Hannah Rafferty (from 12A)
 Dec. 9. Mental condition unchanged - She is demented - Continues to work in kitchen - good health - S.M.
 March 10 a dull slow old woman who has had any memory at all is very slow - Hood W.H.
 June 20 She works in the kitchen at potato peeling both morning & afternoon but is very slow & dull. Hood W.H.
 Sep 20. A quiet demented old woman who is working with the potatoe party in the kitchen. It fair.
 Nov. 24 Pt. has been transferred to ward XVII.
 She continues to work in the kitchen. Fair h. S.M.
 1906. Feb. 16. Pt. is very demented, and works usefully in the kitchen. Lacks all initiative & memory almost blank. S.M.
 May 16. Patient continues to do rough work in the kitchen. She is very weak minded. S.M.
 Aug 16. Patient takes little interest in her surroundings & does not realize her position. She is in good health S.M.

Sep 17. Dementia. She is very dull & confused but to time & place & has little memory. Good health. S.M.
 Transferred to the annex this day. S.M.

Continuation order: - Dementia. She is dull & weak minded & takes little interest in her surroundings; her memory is markedly ^{of fair health} impaired.
 Notice of Death. Hannah Rafferty received 14 Oct 1899 died 8 Aug 1912.
 apparent cause of death - Cirrhosis of Kidneys. Whether or not ascertained by post mortem examination. No. Time & any unusual circumstances attending the death - 8.35 pm. None. Duration of disease - Some years. Name of person present at death - N. Smith Nurse. Whether or not mechanical restraint was applied to deceased.
 No. Signed. J. Wignlesworth, Medical Officer.